TRIVIA

HOW TO PLAY: Trivia 2021 begins at 6:00 PM Friday, April 16th and runs through midnight Sunday, April 18th. There will be breaks from Midnight to 8am. The announcers on WWSP-90FM will ask 8 questions per hour. During the musical breaks, teams should submit their answers in the appropriate location. You are allowed one answer per team per question. Questions will deal with any facts which the Trivia "OZ" determines to be Trivia.

THE OBJECT OF THE GAME: To amass the greatest number of points by answering questions correctly. Each question is worth between 5 and 500 hundred points, determined by the number of teams getting the correct answer. The team with the highest point total at the end of the contest is the winner.

A complaint line will be opened after 9:30 PM April 16th. Questions, unless specified at the beginning of an hour, will have a 2 song time limit in which to answer. The last question will be one song in length. The music questions will be played three times while each is active. This is Trivia like it is played nowhere else. This is the biggest and best, so pull out all the stops and let's play some TRIVIA......

RULES

- 1. Anyone can enter, either alone or with a team. Registration must be done on-line beginning March 15th. Team names are limited to 36 characters including spaces and are to be in relatively good taste.
- 2. If you are tuned into the station on-line, please refresh your connection hourly to avoid buildup of lag time.
- 3. Disqualifications may occur if you exhibit unsportsmanlike conduct. Each team must use the phone number provided.
- 4. Only one answer per question will be accepted.
- 5. Cheating, including collaboration, will not be tolerated, after all, it is only a game. We will strive to maintain the integrity of the contest, and will remove any team that attempts to infringe on the rights of players to participate in an honest contest.
- 6. The complaint line is for the purpose of discussing the validity and accuracy of a question/answer. You must have two tangible sources to challenge a question. The line will be closed during sleeping hours. If you have a problem with your score and how it compares with ours, remember, our total is correct.
- 7. Point values for questions will be read immediately after Trivia Focus with a 1 hour delay. For example, the values for questions in hour 1 will be read at the beginning of hour 3.
- 8. Questions which are asked about actors will require their stage or performing names, unless otherwise specified.
- 9. All rules are subject to change at the discretion of the OZ.
- 10. New Trivia Times will be displayed at the 90fmtrivia.org website.
- 11. Hour 39 questions are hidden throughout the book. Be on the lookout for them. Hour 39 questions may be answered anytime during the active contest until 11PM Sunday. These questions will not be asked on the air or necessarily referred to during the contest.

An open letter to Jim Oliva and John Eckendorf from the members of TinMan:

In times overshadowed by pandemic and political turmoil, we felt it important to put some focus back on positives. Trivia has been and remains a foundation for each of the members of Tin Man, as it is for many of our fellow 90 FM trivia participants. Some of us have been playing in the contest together uninterrupted since the 7th grade (nearly 40 years ago), through personal ups and downs, graduations, marriages, births, and sadly, the passing of dear ones. Few things in life are as constant as the game we return to for one brief weekend each year.

54 Hours of silliness, tension, injustice, bliss, blasphemy, the occasional nip o the bottle, and friendship. None of it would be possible without the effort and dedication of the two of you.

Thank you sincerely for all your years of hard work, the agonizing memories of getting Joe Salave'a's personal confirmation....and then being required to find a second printed source to back it up; for forcing us to watch incredibly bad movies...and obsessively scribble notes on them, for giving us a reason to reconnect regularly with friends we might not otherwise, for tirelessly seeking truth on cereal boxes and 1934 Life Magazine ads and game boards long lost.

But most of all, a sincere THANK YOU for selflessly donating a good portion of your lives to create joy for so many: for the community, for 90 FM, for the students, for all the players. It's been an amazing, epic journey and our lives are richer and more enjoyable for it. And, for the record, Oz did give something to the Tin Man that he didn't already have. And cause never was the reason for the evening....

I shall take the heart. For brains do not make one happy, and happiness is the best thing in the world.

- Tin Man

90fm Trivia Never Trust a Baby With a Mustache 1921

CELEBRATING
41 YEARS OF FAMILY,
FRIENDS, FOOD,
FEUDS, AND FUN!

THANKS TO OZ, ECK, THE 90FM STAFF, AND ALL THE VOLUNTEERS!

THOUGH OLICE TRY HARDER!

In loving memory of the Mom of Dad's Computers, Joan Bamberg.

We chose not to use quotations around the word mom because our use of the word does not imply she was the "mom" of our team, she was the Mom of our team in every sense of the word. Trivia, to Joan, was not about answering obscure questions or trying to compete in the contest. Trivia was the one weekend a year that Joan got to spend with her family... not just her blood relatives, but her extended Trivia family as well. She could not have cared less about the profession of Ern Berck. All she cared about was having her house full of the people she loved most.

Every April for 43 years, Joan graciously opened her home to a ragtag group of friends and family that call themselves "Dad's Computers." Without her generosity, hospitality, and love we never could have achieved our dreams of winning The World's Largest Trivia Contest. Joan loved this contest as much as anyone. She would proudly wear her Dad's Computers gear around town. She loved that she was part of the team. If Dad is the soul of our team, then Mom was certainly our heart.

Joanie will be missed deeply by all of those who knew her. All she knew was kindness. All she gave was love.

Thank you for over 40 years of being our Mom.

TRIVIA STONE QUESTIONS 1, 2, 3

Your quest for Virtual Trivia Stone points requires using Google Street View, cleverness, and trivial knowledge. Everything you need to see is directly visible within Street View. Unless we say otherwise, stay on streets, not sidewalks. Because the direction the Google car (or trike, drone, or pedestrian) took as it captured images doesn't matter, you may travel in the wrong lane or head the wrong way on a one-way street. However, we always want you to enter and exit roundabouts in the manner of local traffic laws.

- 1. To get to Google Street View, go to maps.google.com, then click on the little yellow meeple in the lower right corner of the screen and drag it onto the map. Note how little blue lines appear. They represent places where Google captured Street View images. You can drop the meeple on one of them to enter Street View at that spot.
- 2. Once you're in Street View, use the compass or click and drag to look around. Face the direction in which you want to travel, and click the street to move ahead. Watch your current address (top left) change and how your icon on the mini map (lower left) moves along the blue Street View lines.
- 3. To travel, click low to move slow, click high to skip ahead. Aim for an X on the street for most control.
- 4. Keep track of your path on paper so you can go back if you mis-click and find yourself in the wrong spot. Sometimes, turning around, going back a bit, and then re-entering a tricky intersection can get you through it. So can clicking a little ahead on the blue path in your mini map. Expand it or zoom in and out on it as needed.

Start Trivia Stone Question 1 in front of the 90FM Studios facing North on Reserve Street. Start Trivia Stone Question 2 Southwest end of Penny Lane in Liverpool, United Kingdom. Start Trivia Stone Question 3 Times Square in New York, New York, USA

Secrets

Imagine a boy of nine years, discovering his grandfather's Sears multi-band radio during a visit to Chicago. He tunes in so many radio and TV stations, plus local fire department and law enforcement calls, and much more, all while he shares a cream soda and a Dr. Pepper with grandpa. Then, after dark, signals from outside the city: stratospheric hums and whistles, strange call signs, languages other than English, Morse code, and...numbers? Long series of numbers—just numbers—repeated on the hour with no discernible pattern. Unless you were a spy with a list of words to go with those numbers. Then these "number stations" could pass you a coded message more securely than a letter substitution or symbol code. Learning this was an insight into a world of secrets.

Imagine being him a few years later, when he learns of Area 51 and how it's near the remote town of Roswell, New Mexico, where officials deny stories of a UFO crashing about 30 miles north of the town's border in 1947. What happens there? Reverse engineering of alien tech? Biowarfare research? Lasers? Other stuff that kills people and things in war?

The Raid on Trivia 51 pays homage to secrets, aliens, and conspiracies in pop culture. Such entertainment gives us a chance to solve puzzles. We're drawn to look for patterns, even when none exist. It's not skills we learn—we all see bunnies in the clouds and shapes in the stars. Trivia players know how important it is to question sources and clues. Somehow, we forget that in real life. And what's with a search leading to a page where what you searched for isn't actually there? That's just wrong. Sorry. Wrong rant.

Fortunately, conspiracies in the real world are hard to keep quiet. Big Tobacco's memos got out. Enron was exposed. People talk. Recruit secret-keepers on Friday and most will be secret-sharers by Sunday. And then there are dumb mistakes. Take these lawyers who recently used black highlighting to selectively obscure unreleased incriminating details in a court-filed PDF. They tried to make what was left show their client in a better light. What they did not realize was how easy it was to cut, paste, and make visible the juicy facts they hid by making the text white or removing the black highlighting.

While a few nuts can't absorb the fact we watched astronauts walk on the moon on TV, they fall for the romance of the secret and overlook how faking Apollo would have required countless conspirators keeping quiet. All it takes is one. And the bigger the secret, the harder it is to cover up leaks, to watch everyone who might speak of it.

Sadly, just as true conspiracies are hard to maintain, fake conspiracies are hard to quash. Do contrails control the weather? Have our leaders been replaced by alien lizard people wearing holographic human disguises? Is your physician out to inject a chip into you? Did Elvis himself fake his own death to avoid becoming the victim of murder or criminal investigations? Is King Kong the resident of a Truman TV Show dome? No, no, no, no, and no, of course. Flat-Earthers are the worst. No matter how many times you counter a Flat Earth theory, they'll doctor it or think up a new one. Over and over. Wash, rinse, and repeat. It's like a cult. The end is always near. It never gets here. It always gets another new date, just over the horizon. How can those who profit on fooling others look at themselves in the mirror?

Here's a second-to-last question for you. How come, with everyone carrying a camera these days, there are FEWER grainy photos purported to reveal alien UFOs, the Loch Ness Monster, and Bigfoot (if you see Darryl, say hello to him for us)? Let's hear about THAT from those number stations... 1-4-10 2-1-34 1-1-5, 3-5-9 5-2-5: 1-3-2 2-1-32 3-1-3 6-9-10 2-1-17 6-4-7 2-1-19 2-1-20, 4-8-12 1-2-8 6-3-7 2-6-4 2-1-4 6-9-13 7-3-5 7-2-6 1-2-19 5-3-3 1-3-8, 1-3-1 6-3-13 6-5-3 4-1-9 6-16-9 6-12-2 1-1-8 6-5-12. 2-1-7, 1-2-11 1-2-15 1-2-16 2-1-26 4-7-4 6-9-16 4-9-17 7-2-18 3-5-7 3-4-11 1-2-30 1-2-1 6-3-5 4-5-1 2-1-3 5-3-10 3-2-8 2-1-38 6-5-14 5-1-23 7-2-20 2-1-39 6-6-5 6-4-3. 4-1-1 3-3-5 4-9-24 2-3-4, 3-4-16 6-6-9 1-4-2 2-1-9 5-1-10 4-8-3 3-4-5 2-1-15 4-9-11 5-3-19 1-3-19 7-2-24 1-6-6 6-1-3 6-3-12 3-2-3 7-2-33 1-7-5 1-7-6 6-5-16 6-5-17. 2-2-1 5-1-17 6-6-10 6-5-1 1-2-23 5-3-15 3-3-3 5-1-6 4-7-2 3-4-3?

Trivia Philosophy

Here it is Thursday, April 8th, 2021, a little over a week before the contest. Where have the past 2 year's gone. It's been strange, almost Alien! A little over a week ago, I ate in a restaurant to celebrate a 2-week quarantine period after my second shot. While eating, I realized it had been over a year since I had eaten in a restaurant. As a matter of fact, it was in Egypt. How the time flies.

This year sees a new house, with a new Trivia room, but the same table. DAC has joined Eck and I putting our heads together to create this contest. Some of the meets were on Zoom, and now with the wonder of medical science, we can meet at the house, put elbows on the mouse dropping free table and get down to business. It's amazing how the theme, Raid on Trivia 51, at first, seemed a little dated, but thanks to the conspiracy theorists, it seems appropriate. Since being implanted with those Microchips, I've been in regular communication with Aliens. They are at Area 51 and in Junction City. Yep, heard it directly from them. I'm tuned in!!

The final read through is done. All 3 were full of laughs, as usual. I swear, there are people who have to pay to have this much fun. We get to do it for free. Thank you, all for the opportunity of being able to do this for so many years. I hope that, in some small way, we have put a smile or 2 on your faces. Keep on smiling!

That being said, we plan on taking no prisoners! It's the official start of spring in Stevens Point. It's coming up to Trivia on 90FM. The big question on everyone's mind is, will it snow? Well, of course it will! But put that thought out of your minds, get ready to be in 'contact' with your friends and others, possibly Aliens. There is still the opportunity to over eat for the weekend, after all, haven't you done so for the past year?? So, here is the prescription for the weekend from Dr. Oliva, have fun, contact friends, eat too much and get some sleep, so you can stay healthy. After all, it will probably be the last time we'll give you time to sleep. Hoping! Have a great weekend!
